

Sample Medical Report to test the Regulatory Report Assistant

1. Patient was prescribed Ibuprofen for chronic arthritis pain. After the first dose, the patient experienced moderate stomach pain and mild headache. No severe complications were observed. Condition improved after stopping the medication. Outcome: recovered.
2. Amoxicillin was administered to treat a bacterial respiratory infection. Patient reported severe nausea, fatigue, and mild dizziness. Symptoms continued despite treatment. Outcome: ongoing.
3. Metformin was given to manage type 2 diabetes. Patient experienced mild diarrhea and occasional abdominal cramping. No other complications noted. Patient's condition significantly improved after adjusting dosage. Outcome: recovered.